ST. THOMAS/META KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN: The St. Thomas & Meta Knights of Columbus are participating in the "Meet Life" campaign which includes a coordinated effort to reduce abortions in Missouri through the placement of ultrasound technology in local Pregnancy Centers along with mass media advertising by the Vitae Foundation to direct women to those centers. In the past four years, the Knights of Columbus have collected nearly $9,000 in St. Thomas & Meta which has helped to place an ultrasound machine in the Pregnancy Help Center in Jefferson City. This year, the Knights of Columbus will be raising funds by conducting a baby bottle campaign during the month of January. Baby bottles will be handed out to parishioners following the Mass the weekend of January 9&10. You are asked to place the bottle in a prominent place in your home and each time you see it, pray for the unborn. Please place your pocket change, paper money, and/or a donation check (payable to Columbian Charities) into the bottle. In three weeks, the weekend of January 30&31, please bring your filled bottle back to Mass with you and they will be collected in the back of Church. Each & every one of us has the opportunity to help save lives. Please join the Knights in this campaign and thanks so much for your support!
